

December 9, 2020 Meeting Minutes
Meeting held via Zoom

The meeting began with a welcome to all by Janice Rush. Jessica Duft is unable to attend due to work at Anderson Hospital. There were 36 people in attendance.

Guest Speaker

Shalynn Malone, Grant Manager CT3, Centerstone, discussed the CT3 Project Information. The program focus is to increase access to trauma-focused treatment for children, adolescents and their families who have experienced traumatic events. The target population for the program includes children (2-17 years old), adults and families from the following counties: Franklin, Jackson, Madison, Perry, Randolph, St. Clair, Union, Washington and Williamson. The program objectives are to provide support, intervention and resources to improve mental health, reduce risk factors and improve social and emotional health. The PowerPoint presentation will be available.

General Business:

Janice Rush returns to the Vice Chair and her first meeting in that role she is facilitating today's meeting. Karen Tilashalski provided an update on the website and asked for assistance in reviewing the new content.

Workgroups:

Education and Prevention

- Education and Prevention workgroup resumed meetings. Kristin Grant and LaKendra Moffett are the current chairs of the workgroup. The December meeting will discuss moving forward on the Facebook page updates, continuing the work of the Vaping Subcommittee's toolkit and data collection from parent survey posted on Facebook. If you are interested in the education and prevention work group, please contact Kristin at kmgrant@chestnut.org and let her know.

MERC (formerly Recovery and Treatment)

- The workgroup members are working on finding a chair or co-chairs. Karen Tilashalski volunteered to be a contact if you are interested in this workgroup. Email ktilashalski@chestnut.org

Law Enforcement

- Law Enforcement workgroup will meet virtually in December. The workgroup continues to work on the 501(c)3 paperwork. The DEA Take Back Day was a success this year despite the challenges related to COVID-19. Please contact Taylor at TDDonohoo@co.madison.il.us if you plan to attend the meeting.
